

Coleraine Grammar School Anti-Bullying Policy

Introduction

Coleraine Grammar School is a community of learners which aims to promote a secure and purposeful learning environment. A central aim of the school is to establish a restorative ethos based on mutual respect and consideration, where the needs of each individual are recognised and where all members of the community feel a strong sense of belonging. Coleraine Grammar School endeavours to build positive relationships and seeks to restore these when a breakdown on relationships occur. The school recognises that bullying may exist in all school communities and seeks to provide an open climate where pupils are free to talk with staff about bullying without fear of rebuff or retribution. Underlying the development of this policy is the belief that prevention is better than cure.

The aim of this policy is to help all members of the school community to reach a shared understanding of what constitutes bullying and to develop the skills and formulate strategies to help deal with issues. The strategies being developed in this policy are aimed at teaching all young people important lessons about empathy, assertiveness, rights and responsibilities, honesty, self-esteem and respect for others.

Rationale

All members of Coleraine Grammar School community believe that the primary role of the school is to provide its pupils with the education which will allow them to develop to their full potential. An essential part of this goal is the provision of a supportive, caring and safe learning environment without the fear of being bullied. Bullying behaviour can deny members of the school community access to high quality education and may result in psychological damage to those involved. Bullying is an anti-social behaviour which affects everyone; it is unacceptable and will not be tolerated in Coleraine Grammar School. If bullying does occur this policy should make clear to all members of our school community, the procedures which are in place to deal with the situation. The school seeks to distinguish between the person and their behaviour.

This policy has been drawn up, in consultation with all members of the school community, in order to meet the school's statutory duty under the Education and Libraries (Northern Ireland) Order 2003 and recognising Article 19 of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child which states that "children have the right to be protected from all forms of physical and mental violence". This policy also takes account of current government guidance and legislation:

- Addressing Bullying in Schools Act (Northern Ireland) 2016: Statutory Guidance for Schools and Boards of Governors, March, 2021
- Safeguarding and Child Protection in Schools – A Guide to Schools, DENI updated August 2020

It also takes account of the guidance provided in Evaluating Pastoral Care ETI 2006, 'Pastoral Care in Schools: Promoting Positive Behaviour', (Department of Education, 2001) and Pastoral Care in Schools Child Protection 99/10.

Aims

The aims of this policy are:

- to assist in creating an ethos in which attending school is a positive experience for all members of the school community;
- to make it clear that all forms of bullying are unacceptable at Coleraine Grammar School;
- to enable everyone to feel safe while at school when pupils are on the premises, under the lawful control of a member of staff, receiving educational provision elsewhere or travelling to and from school, and encourage pupils to report incidences of bullying;
- to deal effectively with bullying;
- to support and protect children who have been bullied and ensure they are listened to;
- to help support pupils who have displayed bullying behaviour to change their behaviour and to understand why it needs to change;
- to liaise with parents and other appropriate members of the school community;
- to ensure all members of the school community feel responsible for combating bullying.

Definition of Bullying

Coleraine Grammar School has adopted the Addressing Bullying in Schools Act (Northern Ireland) 2016 definition of bullying as:

“bullying” includes (but is not limited to) the repeated use of —

- (a) any verbal, written or electronic communication*
- (b) any other act, or*
- (c) any combination of those,*

by a pupil or a group of pupils against another pupil or group of pupils, with the intention of causing physical or emotional harm to that pupil or group of pupils.

The term bullying refers to a range of harmful behaviour, both physical and psychological. All bullying behaviour usually has the following four features:

1. It is repetitive and persistent – though sometimes a single incident can have precisely the same impact as persistent behaviour over time. This is as a result of being experienced as part of a continuous pattern and can be extremely threatening and intimidating, which is particularly the case with racist bullying.
2. It is intentionally harmful – though occasionally the distress it causes is not consciously intended by all of those who are responsible or play a bystander role.
3. It involves an imbalance of power, leaving someone feeling helpless to prevent it or put a stop to it.
4. It causes feeling of distress, fear, loneliness and lack of confidence in those who are at the receiving end

Common characteristics include the following points:

- A large part of the motivation is to demonstrate power by creating fear and gain a sense of being 'respected' by peers
- It often happens that young people who engage in bullying have themselves been bullied in the past. They may feel powerless in their current circumstances and therefore compensate for this by intimidating, or trying to intimidate, others
- Bullying can be painfully obvious, but also can be subtle, discreetly hidden and difficult to prove
- Boys often use direct physical bullying and threats of physical bullying, whereas exclusion from friendship groups is more common among girls.
- Bullying can be instigated by an individual, one-on-one, or by a group on one individual or by a group on another group
- Bystanders often show tacit acceptance or approval, and in consequence people at the receiving end often see them as part of what they are up against
- Bullying within school is sometimes directly related to, and consequence of, tensions and feuds within and between groups, families and communities in the local neighbourhood.

Bullying can be:

Emotional	Being unfriendly, excluding, tormenting (e.g. hiding books, threatening gestures, spreading rumours)
Physical	Pushing, kicking, hitting, punching, or any use of violence
Racist	Racial taunts, graffiti, gestures
Sexual	Unwanted physical contact or sexually abusive comments
Homophobic	Because of, or focussing on, the issue of sexuality
Verbal	Name calling, sarcasm, spreading rumours
Cyberbullying	Cyberbullying occurs when the perpetrator uses Information and Communications Technology (ICT), particularly mobile phones and the Internet, deliberately to upset someone else. Included are all areas of internet misuse e.g. e-mail and chat room; threats by text messaging and calls from mobile phones and other devices and misuse of associated technology e.g. camera and video facilities.

Cyberbullying can take place at any time and can intrude into spaces that might previously have been regarded as safe or personal.

It is important that pupils learn that one person's good natured teasing may, to another person, be unkind and even cruel bullying. Pupils are taught through LLW to recognise the difference between teasing and bullying. They are also taught to understand that what is meant as good natured teasing may not always be received in the same way and that bullying may be unintentional.

It is not necessarily the way that behaviour is intended, but the way it is received that is important in identifying and tackling instances of bullying.

It is understood that children can both bully and be bullied at the same time. Although some children are vulnerable to bullying because of physical or social characteristics, anyone can be bullied for any reason or difference or for no particular reason. Individuals may resort to bullying for a range of reasons and the school will seek to support the bully as well as the bullied.

Socially unacceptable behaviours BECOME BULLYING BEHAVIOURS when the information gathered clearly demonstrates that the unacceptable behaviour DOES MEET THE CRITERIA LISTED BELOW i.e. on the basis of the evidence gathered the behaviour is/was:

- intentional,
- targeted at a specific pupil or group of pupils
- repeated – e.g. 2, 3, 4 or more repetitious incidents involving the same target/s
- causing physical or emotional harm
- omission - intentionally choosing not to mention, (failure to act) arising from a desire to cause harm

One-off incidents: while bullying is usually repeated behaviour, there may be instances of serious one-off incidents that the School will consider as bullying. When assessing a one-off incident, to make a decision on whether to classify it as bullying, the School shall consider the following criteria:

- severity and significance of the incident
- evidence of pre-meditation
- impact of the incident on individuals (physical/emotional)
- impact of the incidents on wider school community
- previous relationships between those involved
- any previous incidents involving the individuals

Any incidents which are not considered bullying behaviour will be addressed under the Promoting Positive Behaviour Policy.

Socially Unacceptable Behaviours: Understanding bullying and the different forms it can take is the starting point for preventing and responding to socially unacceptable behaviours effectively. The School recognises that there are many unacceptable anti-social behaviours that may infringe on everyone's right to be safe. The following unacceptable behaviours, when repeated, targeted and intentionally hurtful, may be considered a bullying behaviour. They include:

1. Physical Act

Physical harm is defined as intentionally causing injuries. It can include:

- Hitting, punching, kicking causing bruises, broken bones or burns.
- Pushing, shoving, jostling or physical intimidation
- Any other physical contact which may include use of weapons
- Material harm, such as taking/stealing money or possessions or causing damage to possessions

2. Verbal or Written Acts

Unacceptable verbal behaviours include:

- saying mean and hurtful things to, or about, others
- making fun of others
- calling another pupil mean and hurtful names
- telling lies or spread false rumours about others
- try to make other pupils dislike another pupil/s

3. Indirect

Unacceptable indirect behaviours include:

- Omission (Exclusion)
- Leaving someone out of a game
- Refusing to include someone in group work
- Isolation
- Refusal to work with/talk to/play with/help others

4. Electronic Acts

Unacceptable electronic acts include:

- Using online platforms or other electronic communication to carry out many of the written acts noted above
- Impersonating someone online to cause hurt
- Sharing images (e.g. photographs or videos) online to embarrass someone
- Misuse of mobile phones and internet programmes to humiliate, threaten and/or isolate another.

It should be noted that the above list is not exhaustive and that other behaviours which fit with the definition may be considered bullying behaviour.

Bullying type behaviour can occur due to a variety of motivations. These include, but are not limited to:

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|----------------------|
| • Age | • Gender identity |
| • Appearance | • Sexual orientation |
| • Breakdown in peer relationships | • Pregnancy |
| • Community background | • Marital status |
| • Political affiliation | • Race |
| • Ability | • Religion |
| • Looked After Child status | • Disability / SEN |
| • Young Carer status | |

Use of Language: Bullying is an emotive issue, therefore it is essential that we ensure we use supportive, understanding language when discussing these matters. For that reason, we will not refer to a child as 'a bully', nor will we refer to a child as 'a victim'. Instead, we will refer to the child by describing the situation surrounding that child, for example:

- A child displaying bullying behaviours
- A child experiencing bullying behaviours

We encourage all members of the school community to use this language when discussing bullying incidents.

The School will use the following definitions of emotional and physical harm which are set out in the DE Guidance. In determining 'harm' the School defines:

- Emotional or psychological harm as intentionally causing distress or anxiety by scaring, humiliating or affecting adversely a pupil's self-esteem.
- Physical harm as intentionally hurting a pupil by causing injuries such as bruises, broken bones, burns or cuts.

Staff must remain aware of the way their own behaviour is received and take care not to be accused of bullying pupils or other members of staff. Forms of bullying by staff may include:

- teasing pupils about physical features or characteristics that they have little or no control over;
- inappropriate displays of bad temper;
- ridiculing the work of a pupil in front of others;
- showing inconsistency in the way punishments or rewards are applied;
- physically intimidating pupils;
- insulting or swearing at other members of staff;
- belittling the actions or work of other members of staff;
- criticising colleagues in ways that are not constructive, or are unnecessarily personal.

Staff must always remember that an important part of education is to lead by example. Bullying by members of staff will be treated as a disciplinary matter. Any member of staff who feels he / she is being bullied should initially raise the matter with his / her line manager.

Signs and Symptoms of Bullying

The initial impact of bullying behaviour on a member of the school community often goes unnoticed but may be apparent in mood changes and attitudes to work. Pupils who are being bullied often develop feelings of insecurity and anxiety which may become extreme. This leads to vulnerability, damage to self-confidence and, often, lowering of self-esteem. Frequently individuals do not talk about their problems through fear of the consequences which that might bring. The concealment of their problems and fears may lead to serious outcomes so it is vital that all members of the school community are alert to the situation.

The following may be indicators that an individual is being bullied:

- anxiety about travelling to and from school – requesting parents to drive or collect them, changing route of travel, avoiding regular times for travelling to and from school;
- unwillingness to go to school, refusal to attend, unexplained absences;

- deterioration in educational performance, loss of concentration and loss of enthusiasm and interest in school;
- patterns of physical illnesses e.g. headaches, stomach aches;
- feigning illness; frequent visits to the medical room
- unexplained changes either in mood or behaviour; it may be particularly noticeable before returning to school after weekends or more especially after longer school holidays;
- visible signs of anxiety or distress – stammering, withdrawing, nightmares, difficulty in sleeping, crying, not eating, vomiting, bedwetting;
- spontaneous out-of-character comments about either pupils or teachers;
- possessions missing or damaged;
- stealing money or increased requests for money;
- unexplained bruising, cuts or damaged clothing; and
- reluctance and/or refusal to say what is troubling them.

These signs do not necessarily mean that a pupil is being bullied. If repeated or occurring in combination they warrant investigation in order to establish what is affecting the pupil.

Cyberbullying

Cyberbullying can be defined as

“The use of Information and Communications Technology (ICT), particularly mobile phones and the internet, deliberately to upset someone else.”

DCSF “Cyberbullying – Safe to Learn”

Cyberbullying is a method of bullying which can be used to carry out all the different ‘types’ of bullying but instead of the bullying being carried out in person they use technology as a means of conducting the bullying. Cyberbullying can include a wide range of unacceptable behaviours, including harassment, threats and insults.

Cyberbullying can be an extension of face-to-face bullying, with technology providing the bully with another route to harass their target. However, cyberbullying does differ in several significant ways to other kinds of bullying: for example, the invasion of home / personal space; the difficulty in controlling electronically circulated messages; and even in the profile of the bully and the target. These differences mean that whilst bullying is not a specific criminal offence in UK law, there are laws that can apply in terms of harassment or threatening behaviour. Appendix 2 sets out in a flowchart how alleged incidents of cyberbullying will be dealt with.

Links with other school policies

This policy has links with Coleraine Grammar School’s Promoting Positive Behaviour Policy, Child Protection Policy, E-Safety Policy and the Special Educational Needs and Inclusion Policy. These policies share the goal of creating an environment in which pupils feel secure and confident in the knowledge that their concerns will be listened to and dealt with by members of staff in a sympathetic and appropriate manner.

Participation in Consultation

The school will consult with pupils, parents/carers and the school community when developing and reviewing the anti-bullying policy. This may happen through online consultation, meetings of the School Council and/or during a Staff Development Day.

Roles and Responsibilities of stakeholders

The Responsibilities of the Board of Governors

Governors have a duty of care with regard to the welfare and safeguarding of all registered pupils. The Board of Governors have overall responsibility for ensuring a safe environment for all the School community. Governors will also ensure that measures are put in place to prevent bullying, determining what these preventative measures may be. Governors will also ensure that a record is kept of all incidents of bullying or alleged bullying, involving a registered pupil at the school. Governors will ensure that the school will record incidents of bullying and alleged bullying behaviours noting the motivation, method used, and how each incident was addressed together with the outcomes achieved. Governors will safeguard and promote the welfare of all registered pupils whether they are on the school premises or elsewhere while in the lawful control or charge of a member of staff of the school receiving educational provision elsewhere or travelling to and from school. Governors will consult with pupils, parents/carers and the school community when developing and reviewing the anti-bullying policy and will monitor the effectiveness of the school's anti-bullying policy on an ongoing basis; and review the Anti-bullying policy at least once every four years.

The Responsibilities of the Headmaster

The Headmaster is responsible for promoting an active anti-bullying culture and ensuring incidents involving bullying are brought to an acceptable conclusion. Ensuring that all pupils with a disability have a Care Plan and the School has a general action plan to deal with specific needs of children with each disability represented in the School population. The Headmaster will safeguard and promote the welfare of all registered pupils whether they are on the school premises or elsewhere while in the lawful control or charge of a member of staff of the school or travelling to and from school.

The Responsibilities of SMT

SMT will provide leadership in terms of developing both proactive and reactive strategies. Senior Management will also organise appropriate training required to prepare Staff to implement the policy.

The Responsibilities of Staff

Teaching Staff are required to adhere to the procedures outlined in the policy, which has been agreed by all Staff, and will

- foster in our pupils' self-esteem, self-respect and respect for others;
- demonstrate by example the high standards of personal and social behaviour we expect of our pupils;

- discuss bullying with all classes, so that every pupil learns about the damage it causes to both the pupil who is bullied and to the pupil displaying the bullying behaviour, and the importance of telling a teacher about bullying when it happens;
- be alert to signs of distress and other possible inactions of bullying;
- listen to young people who have been bullied, take what they say seriously and act to support and protect them;
- record any “Bullying concern” in SIMS BM and report suspected cases of bullying to the appropriate Pastoral Leader
- follow up any complaint by a parent about bullying, and report back promptly and fully on the action which has been taken;
- deal with observed instances of bullying promptly and effectively, in accordance with agreed procedures.
- avoid the use of sarcasm or other demeaning forms of language when addressing pupils
- avoid the use racial, sectarian or homophobic language
- avoid the use of negative statements about a pupil’s appearance, background or sexuality
- avoid humiliating directly or indirectly, a pupil who is academically weak, outstanding or vulnerable in other ways
- avoid using any gesture or expression of a threatening or intimidatory nature, or any form of derogatory physical contact.
- use the guidance provided in Appendix 4 in relation to dealing with an incident.

Support Staff

- are required to adhere to the procedures which are appropriate for their role in the school community.

The Responsibilities of Pupils

We expect our pupils to:

- refrain from becoming involved in any kind of bullying, even at the risk of incurring temporary unpopularity;
- intervene to protect the pupil who is being bullied, unless it is unsafe to do so;
- report to a member of staff any witnessed or suspected instances of bullying, to dispel any climate of secrecy and help to prevent further instances.

Anyone who becomes the target of bullies should:

- not suffer in silence, but feel able to speak out, to put an end to their own suffering and that of other potential targets.

The Responsibilities of Parents

We ask our parents / carers to support their children and the school by:

- participate in the development of the school’s Anti-Bullying policy.
- watching for signs of distress or unusual behaviour in their children, which might be evidence of bullying;
- advising their children to report any bullying to their Pastoral Leader and explain the implications of allowing the bullying to continue unchecked, for themselves and for other pupils;
- advising their children not to retaliate violently to any form of bullying;

- being sympathetic and supportive towards their children, and reassuring them that appropriate action will be taken;
- keeping a written record of any reported instances of bullying;
- informing the school of any suspected bullying, even if their children are not involved;
- co-operating with the school, if their children are accused of bullying, try to ascertain the truth, and point out the implications of bullying, both for the young people who are bullied and for those displaying the bullying behaviour.
- Reinforce anti –bullying messages at home that bullying is morally wrong and potentially damaging. We expect the parents of young people who have been bullying others to support the School in terms of potential sanctions.

The Responsibilities of All

Everyone should:

- work together to combat and, hopefully in time, to eradicate bullying.

Preventative Measures

Prevention is clearly the strategy of choice in stopping bullying behaviour from taking place at all. Under the legislation, the focus for all anti-bullying work should be on prevention and therefore the following key actions are in place with the aim of preventing bullying and creating a safe learning environment:

- Whole school level
 - Through participation in the annual Anti-Bullying week organised by the Northern Ireland Anti-Bullying Forum (NIABF).
 - Through whole school assemblies when pupils will be reminded of the school’s zero tolerance policy towards bullying and to challenge the idea that there can be innocent, neutral bystanders with regards to the issue of bullying.
 - Through the school policy on the use of mobile phones which states that inappropriate use may be reported to the PSNI.
 - Through consultation with the School Council as appropriate.
- At classroom level
 - Through Learning for Life and Work where the social skills of negotiation, arbitration and intervention are practiced and where pupils have opportunities to consider the issues of difference and diversity.
 - Through ICT classes where all pupils cover the topic of cyberbullying, considering three main areas:
 1. What is Cyberbullying – this ensures that all pupils are aware of what constitutes cyberbullying.
 2. How to prevent yourself becoming a victim of cyberbullying – this looks at the importance of not making personal information available publicly, of not responding to threatening or rude messages and of not giving anyone access to their passwords.
 3. What to do if you are the victim of cyberbullying – includes keeping messages as proof, using the CEOP (Child Exploitation & Online Protection Centre) button if available, encouraging pupils to tell their parent(s), another adult or a friend.
 - Through anti-bullying signs and information displayed in every classroom.
 - By raising the awareness of the issue of bullying during discussion and debate in curriculum subjects such as English, History, Religious Studies and Drama.

By role modelling of appropriate behaviour towards others by all staff.

- Through pupils deciding on rules of their own class.
- Through reminders provided in Pupil Planners.
- Through discussion of procedures for raising concerns with Year 8 pupils as part of their induction process.
- By having registration tutors and Pastoral Leaders/Assistant Pastoral Leaders available to all pupils as a first point of contact.

Strategies for dealing with Cyberbullying.

Some cyberbullying is clearly deliberate and aggressive such as publicly posting, sending or forwarding personal or private images or information. Other instances of cyberbullying are known to be unintentional and the result of not thinking or of a lack of awareness of the consequences. Unlike other forms of bullying, many cyberbullying incidents can themselves act as evidence

For further clarification this should be read in conjunction with the E-Safety Policy.

- The Internet and other technology-based tools are very powerful resources that can enhance and potentially transform teaching and learning when used effectively and appropriately. Such tools should be accessible and free from restrictions that constrain their worthwhile educational value.
- Safeguards are in place to ensure that the educational use made of such tools is safe and secure.
- All users are taught how to use these tools safely and sensibly to ensure a responsible approach to the use of technology in school.
- Deliberate abuse in school is subject to school rules, and sanctions.
- Deliberate abuse outside school which impinges upon or affects pupils or staff should be dealt with in a multi-disciplinary fashion through the appropriate channels such as the PSNI and legal action. The Headmaster will implement this procedure at his discretion.
- Mobile phone use is banned during the school day. No mobile phones may be taken into sick bay
- Pupils are encouraged to keep evidence of text messages or messages posted on the web
- Should the message record a crime, this is passed to PSNI
- Should the material in question involve child abuse this is reported to the Designated Teacher
- Sexual exploitation is reported to SPOE/PSNI
- Any computer or electronic device suspected of containing such material must not be used and the incident reported to the Central Referral Unit (CRU) of PSNI
- Routes for reporting incidents are publicised and easily accessed by all
- All pupils and parents are made aware of the issue and given advice on how to deal with cyberbullying

Procedures for dealing with incidents of bullying behaviour

Our aim in the process outlined below is to support the individual suffering the bullying behaviour and to focus on changing the behaviour of those individuals displaying bullying behaviour.

- All staff take their duty of care seriously and will be vigilant and take immediate action. If a member of staff observes, or is made aware of, an alleged bullying incident they should complete a Bullying Concern Incident report in SIMS BM and pass this concern immediately on to the appropriate Pastoral Leader(s).
- The Pastoral Leader(s) and/or the Pastoral Vice Principal or Senior Teacher for Pastoral Care will generate a Bullying Concern Assessment Form (BCAF) in SIMS and investigate the allegation carefully by completing the BCAF form, beginning with Part 1 (Assessment of Concern). The Pastoral Leader will create an outline of incident(s): attach all written accounts/drawings of incident(s) completed by targeted pupil, witnesses (i.e. other pupils, staff), include dates of event(s), the type of information gathered and where the information is stored (i.e. on paper or in SIMS). The Pastoral Leader will follow the BCAF and determine if the incident(s) or one off incident have met the criteria for bullying. If the criteria have not been met and bullying behaviour has not occurred, the Pastoral Leader will proceed to record the details in the Behaviour Incident section of SIMS Behaviour Management Module and will refer to the Promoting Positive Behaviour Policy and continue to track and monitor to ensure the behaviour does not escalate. If the criteria have been met and bullying behaviour has occurred, the Pastoral Leader will proceed to complete Part 2 of this Bullying Concern Assessment Form (see BCAF – Appendix 3).
- Once the alleged incident has been thoroughly investigated the Pastoral Leader and/or Pastoral Vice Principal will engage with the pupil(s), parent-carers and/or outside agencies, as required, and decide on an appropriate course of action which will support the pupil experiencing bullying behaviour most appropriately (BCAF Part 3A), e.g. counselling with the Independent School Counsellor, may be offered.
- Once the alleged incident has been thoroughly investigated the Pastoral Leader and/or Pastoral Vice Principal will engage with the pupil(s), parent-carers and/or outside agencies, as required, and decide on an appropriate course of action which will support the pupil displaying bullying behaviour most appropriately (BCAF Part 3B), including how they might alter their behaviour, e.g. counselling with the Independent School Counsellor, may be offered.
- The action(s) taken will be recorded in the BCAF and all records will be attached to the files of the pupils involved in SIMS. Teaching staff will be kept informed as appropriate and necessary.
- A date will be set with all those involved (recorded in Part 4 of the BCAF) at which the situation will be reviewed to determine the extent to which the success criteria have been met.

The welfare needs of all children and young people are paramount and pupils' needs, whether the pupil(s) experiencing bullying behaviour, or the pupil(s) displaying bullying behaviour, need to be separated from their behaviour. A range of responses may be used in dealing with instances of bullying. The response(s) to be used will depend upon the severity and persistence of the bullying. When bullying concerns are identified our school will work in a restorative way to achieve the necessary change i.e. it is intended that the person responsible will learn from what has happened and will change his or her behaviour. Education and awareness-raising are effective ways of challenging bullying behaviour and encouraging individual pupils to take responsibility for their own actions. These may include: a programme of mentoring, calming strategies, restorative conversations (scripted – see Appendix 5), counselling, or referral to an outside agency. Class activities and Assemblies may also be used more generally for this purpose. In addition, further sanctions may be considered, in line with the Promoting Positive Behaviour Policy and/or the Scheme for the Suspension and Expulsion of Pupils policy in the most serious or persistent incidents.

Monitoring and Evaluation

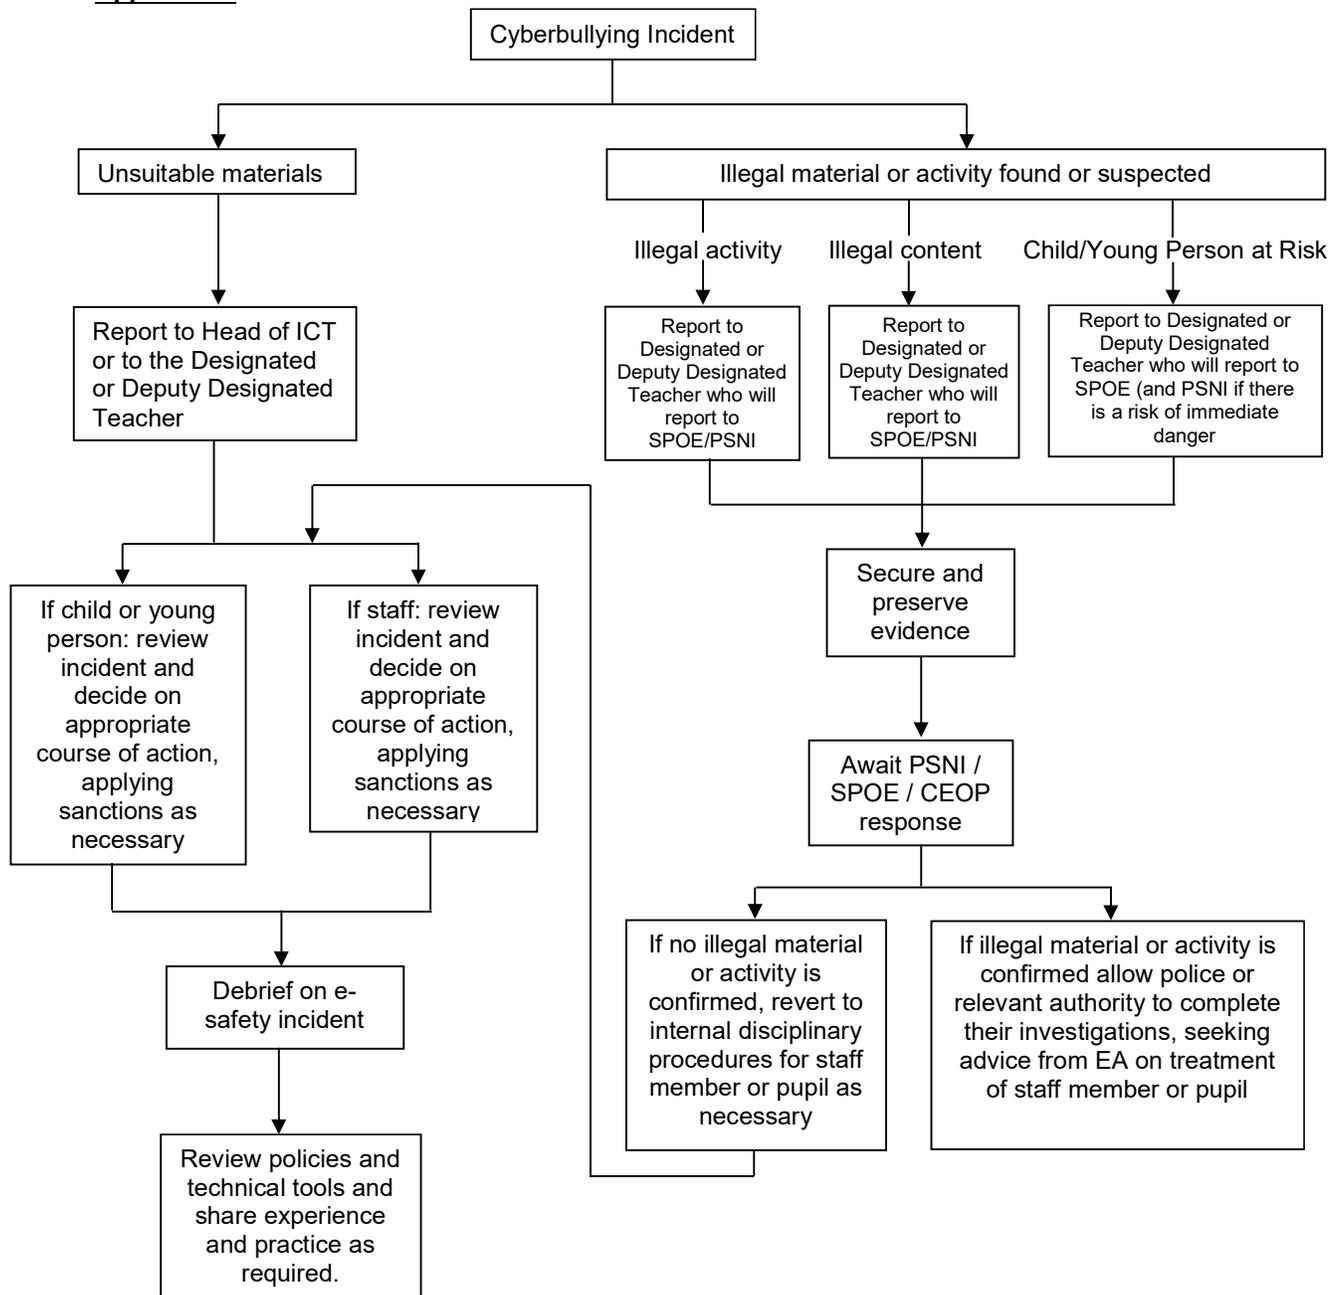

This effectiveness of this policy will be monitored regularly by SMT and School Governors using records of bullying incidents recorded in SIMS, including the type and location of the incident in an attempt to identify any patterns i.e.

- recurring complaints of bullying against a particular pupil or group of pupils;
- evidence that a particular child is, for some reason, becoming a target for bullying behaviour;
- particular times of the school day / week when bullying is tending to occur; and
- particular situations where bullying may be occurring.

This will help shape and direct anti-bullying policy within the school.

The views of pupils, staff and parents will also be sought and used to make changes and improvements to the policy on an ongoing basis.

Appendix 1

Appendix 2

Staff should adopt a positive mind-set when responding to bullying concerns.

- Be calm. It is important to be clear thinking and emotionally in control.
- Be positive. Have in mind the importance of maintaining a positive relationship with the pupil. The pupil is more likely to modify their behaviour if he/she perceives the teacher cares.
- Be assertive. Clearly express your thoughts and expectations concerning the need for the bullying to cease and for restitution to be made with the child who has been bullied.
- Be confident. Trust that you can have an impact on the pupil's future behaviour. It is helpful to focus on the behaviour rather than the pupil.
- Check the behaviour. Make sure the behaviour does conform to the school's agreed definition of bullying
- Assess. Consider the situation and the level of severity. Determine the appropriate level of response.

To assess the severity

CONSIDER

- The nature. Be aware that exclusion and teasing can be as damaging as physical violence. It is a common mistake to treat physical violence as more serious than more subtle forms.
- The frequency daily; weekly; less often?
- The duration does it occur over a short or extended time span?
- The perceptions of the child being bullied the seriousness is connected to the level of distress caused to the victim.

If a Child Protection issue arises this MUST be passed to the Designated Teacher for Child Protection, or in his absence to the Deputy Designated Teachers (or the Headmaster if none of the Designated Teachers are available).

Appendix 4 – Steps to deal with bullying

Bullying is learned behaviour, children are not born bullies, so given the right attention and learning environment they can change their behaviour. Attempting to frighten, scare or intimidate bullies into stopping their behaviour by shouting at them, will only compound the problem.

Treating a bully with respect and dignity, as well as trying to get them to understand that their behaviour has been hurtful, is very important and the best way forward.

The three steps to dealing with incidents of bullying are:

1. To interview the person who has been bullied and the person who has displayed bullying behaviour separately.
2. To provide support for those individuals
3. To monitor and review the situation

When a bullying incident is reported, remember:

- each case will be different and the solution must be tailored to suit the problem;
- to remain impartial – do not look to attribute blame;
- to aim is to restore the relationship and move the situation on and to help all individuals involved to gain insight into their behaviour;
- that both behaviours have been ‘learned’ from their life experience, so with appropriate support they can be challenged and replaced by acceptable behaviours

Step 1 – Interviewing the individuals involved

The person who has been bullied

1. Listen to the victim’s story in a calm non-judgemental way.
2. Indicate from the start that the incident is being taken seriously.
3. Allow the victim to explore their feelings about the incident.
4. Do not attempt to find out all the facts as this may only increase the stress.
5. Discuss and agree with the pupil how they will be supported. Involve them in helping to arrive at a constructive method for resolving the situation.
6. Agree acceptable targets for making the situation acceptable.
7. Agree a review date.
8. Monitor the situation with staff in an unobtrusive way.

The person who displayed the bullying behaviour and any bystanders

1. Interview the person who displayed the bullying behaviour along with any bystanders
2. Do not disclose the source of the information by respecting the confidentiality of the victim and witnesses.
3. State that all incidents of inappropriate behaviour are taken seriously.

4. Make it clear to the group that they have a problem and that they need to find ways of seeking a constructive solution.
5. Facilitate them in working through this process and begin to set agreed behaviour targets for the group.
6. Make the group aware that the progress of the plan will be monitored and appropriate action take

NB the following questions may be useful in structuring the interviews:

To help those affected:	When challenging behaviour:
What did you think when you realized what had happened? What impact has this incident had on you and others? What has been the hardest thing for you? What do you think needs to happen to make things right?	What happened? What were you thinking of at the time? Who has been affected by what you have done? In what way have they been affected? What do you think you need to do to make things right?

Step 2 – Provide support for the individuals involved

For the person who has been bullied.

1. Identify a member of staff who will act as a point of referral for the pupil.
2. Find a reliable friend or 'circle of friends' who will accompany the individual and report any incidents.
3. Identify times and place of bullying and minimise opportunities by ensuring supervision.
4. Provide specific advice on strategies to prevent incidents of bullying to staff e.g. seating arrangements in class.
5. Work with the individual to develop self-esteem or social skills.

For the person who has displayed the bullying behaviour

1. Communicate clear expectations of acceptable behaviour.
2. Communicate and carry out sanctions in relation to a breach of the Positive Behaviour Policy.
3. Work with the person displaying the bullying behaviour to improve their social skills.

For the Pastoral Leader/Pastoral Vice Principal

1. Telephone the parents of the pupils involved. (The victim may request that their parents are not contacted, in which case the interviewer may use his or her discretion. This should be noted on the Interview Form)
2. Enlist parental support to ensure they are aware and in agreement with the targets set.
3. Include them in the monitoring and reviewing process.

Step 3 – Conducting the review meeting

(Arranged after a suitable period of time i.e. 3/6 weeks)

1. Interview all those involved to ascertain if the matter has been resolved.
2. if the matter is not resolved set new targets
3. monitor and review until the situation is resolved.

- ✓ become more self-aware

- ✓ become more self-aware
- ✓ take responsibility for his/her behaviour
- ✓ promote reparation.

Restorative Questioning
